

Next steps...

Congratulations! You have completed the knowledge portion of your continuing education exam. Now what?

CDR Critical Thinking Self-Study Evaluation Tool

---

Now it's time to respond to the five CDR Critical Thinking Self-Study Evaluation Survey Questions below. The five questions below appear online immediately after the knowledge portion of the continuing education exam.

1. Did you find the education valuable? If yes, what aspects of the education was valuable? If no, why not?
2. Did you or will you make a change to your practice(s), based on what you learned in this program? If yes, do you intend to make? If no, why not?
3. What barriers or limitations do you anticipate when trying to implement this new information into your practice?
4. What are the strengths and limitations of the information presented?
5. What are the identified gaps in the information provided? (Ex. Outcomes that apply to a specific patient/client population (limited data in gender, age, other races, etc.)

All practitioners must complete this Critical Thinking Self-Study Evaluation Tool for EACH continuing education course completed.
